

StoneSoup

Flash Fiction Contest!

For this contest, we want you to try to craft a tiny story (300 words or fewer!) that tells a big story or captures a big idea -- or maybe just describes a single moment or a single thing in extreme and unusual detail. This sounds easy, but it shouldn't be! Each word or phrase becomes more important.

Deadline: June 15th, 2018 11:59pm PST

Subject: Any!

Results: We will select three winners, as well as few honorable mentions, whose names will be listed in the magazine. First place will receive $50, second place $25, third place $10.
